

Dry

by Edan Milner

C Em Am

When I scan the morn - ing head - lines, it makes me want to cry, but I'm dry.
(As I) watch a gold - en sun - set, it makes me want to cry, but I'm dry.

4 FMaj7 F C Em Am

When I hear a friend is ail - ing, it makes me want to cry, but I'm dry.
And the sound of child - ren play - ing, it makes me want to cry, but I'm dry.

8 FMaj7 F Dm G7

When I pon - der my to - mor - rows, I think I could cry, but I
When I see young lov - ers walk - ing, I think I could cry, but I

11 C Am Dm

have - n't got tears e - nough to moist - en an eye; I used them all a year a - go when have - n't got tears e - nough to moist - en an eye; I used them all a year a - go when you said good - bye ... now I'm dry. As I you said good - bye ... now I'm dry.

14 G7 C

17 2 F Em Am

May - be some - day some sad mov - ie or a gloom - y old song will

20 F Em Dm F

melt this chunk of ice that's been my heart for so long; and should the flood - gates op - en and the

23 Em Am F Dm G7

tears a - gain flow, then I'll know I've fin - ally let you go.

28 C Em Am
On the days I wake up ear - ly, it makes me want to cry, but I'm dry.

32 F Maj7 F C Em Am
If I'm out late with my sor - row, it makes me want to cry, but I'm dry.

36 F Maj7 F Dm G7
When you wan - der through my mem - ories I think I could cry, but I

39 C Am Dm
have - n't got tears e - nough to moist - en an eye; I used them all a year a - go when

42 G7 F G
you said good - bye ... now I'm dry. When you

45 G C
... now I'm dry.